About the College

The Standard Fireworks Rajaratnam College for Women was established in 1968, in memory of the late Philanthropist Thiru. N.R.K. Rajaratnam. Thiru K.A.A. Sankaralingam Nadar, Thiru K.A.A. Arunachalam Nadar and Thiru C. Chelladurai Nadar were the founder architects and stalwarts of this edifice of learning. They chalked out the mission for the intellectual upliftment of rural women in and around Sivakasi by establishing The Standard Fireworks Educational Charities Trust. It was their vision to liberate the rural women from their socio, economic and cultural constraints by intellectually equipping them to confront the challenges of everyday life.

About the Department

The PG and Research Department of English with the luminous history of 54 years is an icon of the golden legacy of SFRC. This milestone has been achieved by the collective contribution of each member of the department who with steady determination realizes the noble objective of shaping young women into all-round personalities. The Department offers two streams of UG, (Regular and Self-Financed), PG and Ph.D. Programmes. The Department also offers Business English Certification Programme and a Certificate Course in Vocational English that enhance the employability potentials. Certificate Programme in Creative Writing fosters creativity in the students and Certificate Programme in Cultural Studies strengthens their research potential. The Department pursues the Herculean task of grooming the students with updated curriculum to match the demands of the twenty first century and mentoring them with moral values and principles to confront the challenges in the society.
